Candidates Offer Hikes to Teachers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Campaign funds and wooing the state's teachers dominated most of the Arkansas gubernatorial campaign over the weekend.

Kenneth Coffelt released Sunday a letter he has written to Hays Gibson, president of the Arkansas Education Association, in which he promised to raise the minimum salary for all teachers to $4,000 annually if elected.

Coffelt's action followed that of the incumbent Gov. Orval E. Faubus who said Saturday that he has written every teacher in the state pointing out progress made under his administration.

Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney, said he planned to get funds for teachers' salaries by "reducing the present padded state payroll which has been built up purely for political purposes."

Arms Confab Is Shrouded in Gloom

By DORIAN FALK

GENEVA (AP) — The 17-nation disarmament conference resumes today in an atmosphere notable for a lack of expressions of optimism that traditionally precede diplomatic talks in Geneva.

The second phase of negotiations for a disarmament treaty is expected to center on details and technical discussions of the rival U.S. and Soviet plans.

The first three-month phase of the conference made little headway. It was devoted mostly to lengthy speeches and explanations of policy. The only step forward was the adoption of a treaty preamble in general terms.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean sounded the only positive note as the delegates arrived over the weekend. He said there might be a better chance now than in the past for an agreement on a treaty to ban nuclear weapons tests, the four-year-old issue dealt with in a U.S.-British-Soviet subcommittee of the conference.

British Minister of State Joseph B. Gough and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin side-stepped comment on the nuclear issue.

The New York Times said the United States and its allies are willing to agree to a cut-off date for nuclear weapon tests that would allow the Soviet Union to conduct the last series of tests. Jan. 1, 1963 is the date being discussed, the Times said.

The idea of a fixed cut-off was proposed by Mexico before the conference adjourned a month ago but no action was taken then.

There was a general feeling that a three-power agreement to end nuclear weapons tests was the only issue in these disarmament talks that had any chance of being settled in the foreseeable future.

The Geneva negotiations for world disarmament — a project discussed for 15 years in various forums without any progress at all — are expected to last for several more years.

The Western plan, already rejected by the Soviets, provides for gradual disarmament with control provisions to guarantee that no disarming country secretly retains armies and weapons, and for a strong international force under the United Nations to keep the peace in a disarming world.

The Soviet plan, unacceptable to the West, provides for total disarmament in four years with abolition of all nuclear arms in the first 15-month stage, no control over the forces and weapons that a country would be entitled to retain under a treaty, and a weak peace-keeping force whose units would be under national command.

Argentine Girl Miss Universe

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Miss Universe could have danced all night, but she didn't. She had to be in her room at 1 a. m.

Norma Beateiz Nolan, the 24-year-old brunette model from Argentina who has never had a date without a chaperone — formally opened her reign at the coronation ball Sunday night in Miami Beach's swank Fontainebleau Hotel.

She had a date — and more than 1,000 escorts — at the ball, including consular officials from the 50 nations represented at the week-long pageant.

The smoky-eyed brunette dazzled the glittering crowd in a white evening gown that clung to her 35-25-36 figure, and a new white fur that cost the pageant $10,000.

"I don't know what nations I shall visit," said Miss Nolan. "I'm going to try in all of them to do everything possible to promote international friendship."

After she was crowned Saturday night before a nationwide television audience, she kept saying, "I don't know why I won. Those other girls were so beautiful."

Miss Nolan said she planned to splurge part of her $5,000 prize money for clothes. Paris and Rome are the cities she looks forward to visiting — to look at clothes.

"I don't want movie contracts," she said. "I like to travel."

Bomb Blast in Vatican Investigated

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Vatican officials investigated today a bomb explosion in St. Peter's Basilica but said they attach no political significance to the blast.

They said it appeared the work of someone mentally deranged.

The tiny time bomb went off Saturday night after the Basilica had closed. Damage was slight and no one was injured.

Good Chance for Income Tax Cut

NEW YORK (AP) — H. Ladd Plumley, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, says the outlook is good for an immediate cut in federal taxes.

Plumley, appearing Sunday night on a television program, said he based his prediction on what he termed a growing realization that a tax cut is needed to put new life into the economy.

14 Racists Jailed at Cairo, Ill

CAIRO, Ill. (AP) — Fourteen jailed integrationists, vowing not to eat until they are released, got candy bars through their cell bars Sunday.

Police said it was not known if the 14 ate any of the candy. None of them accepted jail lunches or supper.

Two of the 14 ate breakfast, then vowed with the others to refuse all food. Dozens of Negroes visited the jail during the day and passed candy bars to the prisoners.

Three white men, a white woman and 10 Negro teenagers were jailed Saturday when they refused police orders to move from the entrance of an all-white swimming pool.

Four others arrested at the same time are free on bond. Those remaining in jail said they did not want bond.

All are scheduled to appear in court Thursday on charges ranging from violation of the state law against mob action, breach of the peace and obstructing an officer. Possible penalties are one year in jail and fines of $500.

'Riders' to North Are Continuing

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Two more "reverse freedom riders" arrived in Concord Sunday following a report others will be on their way later this week.

Milton Smith, 31, and Charles Davenport, 18, both laborers, arrived on one-way bus tickets from New Orleans. They brought to 19 the number of Negroes sent to Concord by southern segregationists.

Smith and Davenport were taken to Grenier Air Force Base, Manchester, and given shelter in unused military barracks.

In New Orleans, George Singleman, a director of the Citizens Council of Greater New Orleans, said Concord could expect several more riders from Louisiana and Arkansas next Sunday.

Singleman said the wives and seven children of two men who previously arrived in Concord will leave for the New Hampshire city Friday morning.

Also in the group, Singleman said, will be two families, from Baton Rouge, each consisting of a man, his wife and three children. Singleman said three women and their 22 children to leave Little Rock, Ark., on Friday for Concord.

Ten riders, including an expectant mother and her six children arrived from Shreveport, La., Saturday. The woman, Mrs. Willie Hall, 26, and her family were housed at an undisclosed location.

The others, a man and two single women, were taken to the Merrimack County Farm at Bos-cawen.

Seven men who arrived in New Hampshire last week, already have found employment.

PARIS (AP) — The wage strike which tied up the ocean liner France at Le Havre has been settled and the huge ship will sail for New York Tuesday, the French Line announced today.

The French Line took the France out of service Saturday.

Texarkanian Is Held for Hope Robbery

Raymond Albert Bowman, white Texarkana, Texas, was arrested there Saturday afternoon and returned to Hope to face charges in the robbery of the Laundromat on E. Second St.

Bowman was picked up in Texarkana by Lt. Scrub Mosier and Travis Ward of the state police and given to Hope city police to face an investigation of a $25 theft of cash from a Laundromat coin box. Bowman is accused of prying open the coin box with a screwdriver.

But additional evidence pointed to a forcible entry of the building and Bowman was turned over to Sheriff Jimmie Griffin to face a burglary charge which will be filed today.

Other city police items over the weekend:

Carl Bradley, 415 N. Hazel St., reported to police that some white boys threw eggs at his house Sunday night. Officer Martin investigated.

Also on Sunday night Mrs. Roy Miller, N. Bell St., reported someone entered her house. Nothing was missed from the house, but she found three tires punctured on her car.

Joe Kescy Jr., 1107 W. Seventh St., driving a Falcon and Alford Messer, 320 Pritchard, driving a Plymouth, figured in a collision Sunday afternoon at Avenue B and N. Main St. Both cars sustained considerable damage. Messer was charged with failure to yield right-of-way, and Kescy with failure to have a driver's license.

Mrs. Charles Purifoy, 716 W. Sixth St., reported to police Saturday that on Friday night someone stole a hubcap off her 1962 Chevrolet, while it was parked in the garage.

Skeptical Doctor Is Proved Right

WASHINGTON (AP) — A skeptical woman doctor kept off the American market a drug ultimately blamed for thousands of birth malformations in Europe.

How and why Dr. Frances Oldham Kelsey, a Food and Drug Administration medical officer, blocked a marketing license here for thalidomide were detailed Sunday by the Washington Post.

Here is the Post's account:

In September 1960, Dr. Kelsey received from the William S. Merrell Co. of Cincinnati a request for permission to market the sedative in the United States under the name Kevadon.

The drug was being sold in Canada, Dr. Kelsey's native country, and in Europe with no harmful side effects noted. Still, the 47-year-old medical officer regarded its safety as unproved.

For the next year she kept declining to license the drug.

In November, 1961, the firm heard from Europe that thalidomide had been linked with malformations in babies born to women who had used it when pregnant. The Merrell company reported this promptly to Dr. Kelsey and withdrew its application.

Subsequent investigations, particularly in West Germany, established a link between the drug and phocomelia, a malformation that usually deprives its victims of one arm, leaving rudimentary fingers arising from a stub below the shoulder.

It is estimated that by the end of next month the total of deformed children born in West Germany will be 3,500 to 6,000.

Thalidomide — under its various trade names — now has been generally withdrawn from the market.

Speakers at Installation of Local Jaycee Officers

Chris Finkbeiner

Chris Finkbeiner of Little Rock was the guest speaker at the annual installation banquet for the Hope Jaycees and Jayceettes at the Barlow Hotel Monday night July 9. The Little Rock businessman told the group of 40 that, in reality, he was not going to make a speech, but wanted to visit instead. However, he did point out some of the outstanding contributions which Jaycees had made to Arkansas.

Guy Jones of Texarkana, State Jaycees Parliamentarian, installed the following new officers in the Hope Jaycees: president, Raymond Clark; first vice president, Pete Shields Jr.; second vice president, Ted Price; secretary, Melvin Redd; treasurer, Lee Roy Anderson; members of the board, D. J. Goodner, Don Fuller and

Mrs. Lee Roy Anderson

Raymond Byers.

The state auxiliary president, Mrs. Harold Davis of Malvern, installed these new Hope Jayceette officers: president, Mrs. Lee Roy Anderson; first vice president, Mrs. Doyle Yocom; recording secretary, Mrs. Melvin Redd; secretary, Mrs. Wayne Bohannon; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Clark; parliamentarian, Mrs. Denville Ross.

Mrs. Melvin Redd received the Key Woman Award, and Mrs. Lee Roy Anderson was named the Outstanding Hope Jayceette. Presentations were made by the retiring Jayceette President, Mrs. Carter Russell. In appreciation of the work she had done the past year, Mrs. Russell was presented a gift.

Red Embassy Auto Hits New Yorker

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (AP) — Police say a Soviet employee side-swiped another auto with his car Sunday night and rushed off to the Soviet estate here, telling the other driver he didn't have time to wait for authorities.

Police traced the driver, identified as Igor Andreev, an employee of the Soviet secretariat at the United Nations, to the Soviet estate through his license plate number, which had been jotted down by the other driver involved — Anthony Nosen of Glen Head, N.Y.

At the estate, police said, Andreev told them he thought he had properly identified himself to the other driver and had rushed off because he was in a hurry.

Nosen told police that Andreev showed him a card indicating his Soviet affiliations when they got out to survey damage to their cars at the accident scene.

Nosen, his wife and two children were treated for minor injuries.

A police spokesman said it is doubtful that any action will be taken.

Foreign nationals in this country on diplomatic visas are immune from prosecution.

2 Beauties Crowned at Clarksville

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two Arkansas beauties won titles at Clarksville Saturday night.

Annette Carlisle, 18-year-old student at the College of the Ozarks, was crowned Queen Elberta during the 21st annual Johnson County Peach Festival.

Lynne Carroll Gleason, 18, of Dardanelle, was named Miss Arkansas Valley.

Miss Carlisle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carlisle of Clarksville, succeeds Jayne Brantling, also of Clarksville.

Miss Gleason, who enters Hendrix College as a freshman this fall, succeeds Nancy Cochran of Russellville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gleason of Dardanelle.

Railroad Coals Burn Automobile

REUS, Spain (AP) — Investigators today blamed burning coals from a passing locomotive for an automobile fire that killed two of the four occupants of a small automobile.

They said the coals fell from the railway engine on an overpass directly into the compartment housing the car's small rear engine, causing an explosion.

Want U. S. School Aid, No Controls

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Both Democratic candidates for the U.S. Senate have told the Arkansas League of Women Voters they favor federal aid to education, but without controls.

The Republican candidate, Dr. Kenneth G. Jones, replied to the LWV questionnaire that "federal intervention in education is unconstitutional."

The incumbent Sen. J. William Fulbright noted that he had co-sponsored a bill of federal aid to schools without controls which would have given Arkansas $39 million over a three-year period.

But, said Fulbright, the measure failed in the House of Representatives.

His Democratic opponent, Winston G. Chandler, said the federal government should turn back to the states school funds without any strings attached.

Each was asked which government problems interested them the most.

Jones termed it the preservation of the constitutional system while Chandler replied that he is interested in problems concerning the Constitution, free enterprise, religious freedom and individual freedom.

Fulbright did not point to any specific area but said a senator needs to have diverse interests and not be concerned with only a few particular areas.

Regarding medical care for the aged, both Fulbright and Chandler voiced support of the Kerr-Mills Act while Jones opposed it.

Gathings Names a Secretary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., announced today appointment of Bert C. Hardin, Ark., to be his secretary in the first district.

Gathings said Hardin would be in the congressman's West Memphis, Ark., office three afternoons a week to handle various matters pertaining to constituents and their problems.

Gathings said his West Memphis office is in the Bank of West Memphis Building.

Hardin, a resident of Crittenden County for 30 years, was revenue inspector for the county during the administration of former governor Carl Bailey.

3 U. S. Men Killed in S. Viet Nam

By MALCOLM BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Three U.S. Army men were dead and five missing today following crashes of two American planes in Communist-infiltrated South Viet Nam over the weekend.

Two U.S. Army officers and an enlisted man perished aboard a U.S. Army helicopter shot down Sunday by Communist guerrilla gunfire near the Laotian border.

One U.S. officer survived the crash virtually unhurt and an enlisted man was still missing along with two Vietnamese military men.

An air search was under way over a wide area northeast of Saigon for a U.S. Air Force transport which crashed Sunday night with four American crewmen aboard.

Ground searches found the bodies of the Americans aboard the helicopter, which crashed in mountainous jungle while on a supply mission in Kontum Province about 20 miles below the Laotian border.

The only known survivor, an American Army captain, was found walking through the brush about five miles south of the crash. He suffered only bruises.

The search continued for those still missing.

The confirmed deaths brought to 10 the number of U.S. servicemen killed in operations against the Viet Cong since the United States stepped up its assistance and training program last December.

U.S. authorities said the plane presumably crashed on what was described as a maintenance support mission from Saigon to the town of Ban Me Thuot, 10 miles northeast of here.

It was the third transport to crash in South Viet Nam since December.

A third search was under way in neighboring Laos for a light twin-engine plane missing since Saturday with two Americans aboard.

The plane's owners said it carried an American pilot and a member of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group on a flight from Vientiane to Paksane, 5 miles eastward.

In all three air incidents, names of the Americans were withheld.

Arms Base Strikes Pose Law Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg says any work stoppages at the nation's missile plants could prompt him to seek anti-strike legislation from Congress.

"We cannot afford a strike in our missile manufacturing plants," Goldberg said Sunday during a radio and television program taped with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., for use in New York.

Goldberg expressed hope for a peaceful settlement of a dispute between missile manufacturers and two unions — the United Auto Workers and the Machinists — which threatens to end in a strike July 23. About 125,000 workers at five plants are involved.

Coffelt said that McMath's campaign film cost $67,000, more than double his own total campaign fund and that Faubus was spending $250,000 and up.

Alford also charged that political appointees in state institutions are getting good salaries while trained technicians were being overlooked.

Faubus mailed letters to the teachers of the state, making his strongest bid yet for their support.

In other political developments over the weekend, Coffelt, Mc-Math and Whitten told the Arkansas League of Women Voters what they think are the most important issues to be considered by the governor during the next two years.

Coffelt said it was the task of restoring moral fibre to the state.
McMath said it was presenting the state, its people and its resources in the proper light to the nation and Whitten said it was strict compliance with the current constitution.

In answering a questionnaire of the league, all three said they favored revision of the constitution, but differed on how to go about it. The league said the other candidates have not answered their questions.

Today, Whitten was to be in Scott, England, Humnake, Stutt-bus had a visit to Jonesboro on his agenda. McMath planned stops

Ribicoff Is Named, But Fight Looms

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut Democrats faced today the job of healing a serious breach in party unity after nominating Abraham A. Ribicoff for the U.S. Senate.

Ribicoff, who resigned as welfare secretary in the Kennedy Cabinet to return to Connecticut politics, was nominated at the rowdiest state convention in recent memory.

While party leaders, including
State and National Chairman John M. Bailey, pondered how to heal the wounds, Rep. Frank Kowalski, loser in the Senate nomination battle, was left to ponder his political future after two terms in office.

The convention, which ended
Sunday morning, chose Ribicoff, a former governor, over the retired Army colonel, as expected.
Kowalski was left with less than 20 per cent of the votes, and no chance to call for a statewide primary.

Gov. John N. Dempsey, who succeeded Ribicoff as governor 18 months ago, was nominated unanimously as gubernatorial candidate.

Ribicoff's Republican opponent is Rep. Horace Seely-Brown Jr., a veteran of six terms in Congress.

The convention results left no doubt that Bailey was still in the saddle. But the finality of Kowalski's defeat was a bitter pill for his vociferous followers to swallow.

They had jeered every time the names of Bailey and Ribicoff were mentioned from the platform.

They had interrupted the keynote address delivered Friday night by Mansfield and shouted down Sen.
Thomas J. Dockrill, D-Conn., when he placed Ribicoff's name in nomination.

When their champion, in defiance of protocol, appeared on the stage during a floor demonstration in his honor and urged them on,
they went into a near frenzy.

Scores of shouting demonstrators who had been denied admission to the hall stormed the doors, bursting past police guards.

After the tumult, Ribicoff was overwhelmingly endorsed by a vote of 78-163.

Kong means "Fragrant Harbor."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemor-roids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.
This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®.

PROVEN PROGRESS in ARKANSAS

PAID - $51,620,000

OF THE DEBT OWED BY THE STATE AT THE TIME GOVERNOR FAUBUS TOOK OFFICE.

In January, 1955, the State owed $111,068,000 in bonded debt . . . of which $21,000,000 was piled up by the McMath administration.

NO DEFICIT SPENDING

Under Governor Faubus' leadership, the state has avoided deficit spending by staying on a Cash Basis (when many states were using red ink spending just to meet daily operating expenses.) So, in addition to OPERATING ON A CASH BASIS, the State has paid $51,620,000 on the debt owed at the time Gov. Faubus took office.

SUPREME COURT ACCLAIM

Governor Faubus has demonstrated trustworthy leadership in handling the State's financial affairs. Here is what the Arkansas Supreme Court said in unanimously upholding the "GEN-ERAL ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES LAW" and the "REVENUE STABILIZATION LAW" on May 28, 1962:

"These laws were amended from time to time and when Appellee Faubus came into office in 1955 he proposed, and the Legislature adopted, the General Accounting Procedures Law which is comprehensive in detail.

"Through this act the Legislature has supplied the controls so necessary for the proper functioning of the Revenue Stabilization Law. These two acts go hand in hand and constitute as near as possible a guarantee against deficit spending by the State Government."

A PLEDGE BY GOVERNOR FAUBUS

"I pledge to you to continue this same honesty and integrity in public office, and ask your endorsement of this program by voting for me on July 31st."

Medicare to Face Crisis This Week

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Kennedy's Social Security health care plan for the aged faces a decisive test in Congress this week.

The measure is the major item on a schedule which promises a busy week in both Senate and House.

The Senate, which has debated the bitterly disputed health care issue for two weeks, is to vote Tuesday afternoon on whether to table and thus kill the president's plan.

A revised version has been worked out to win support of five Republicans, but both sides expect the result to be extremely close. Sponsored by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., it is being offered as an amendment to a House passed bill revising the public welfare laws. If the plan passes the Senate, it goes on to the House where its prospects are doubtful.

After disposing of the matter the Senate is expected to take up a money bill to provide funds for the Welfare and Labor departments.

A floor fight is likely to develop because of proposed Republican amendments to bar both impacted

Breshman Blames Overstrict Parents for Wayward Children

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKIN

Dear Helen: I am old enough to enter college this fall yet my parents treat me as if I were still in kindergarten. They open my mail, police my comings and goings and censor my dates. While saying that they want me to meet nice girls, they say "No!" every time I try to date one.

Many of my friends suffer from this same parental dictatorship. We feel these strong-arm tactics court disaster. As a result of this stern discipline we are fast developing into a reckless, wilful and wild lot—no credit to ourselves or our folks. If they keep it up, we shall all land in jail, out of sheer defiance. —Chuck

Dear Chuck: Your letter reduced certainly illustrates the evils of government by force, not reason.

In threatening to go to hell if your parents don't let up, you're resorting to the same strong-arm methods you decry in them. The school and hospital construction grants to segregated institutions. The impacted school program covers districts crowded because of federal installations.

The House is expected to send to the President today legislation giving him authority to allocate 150,000 tons of premium price import sugar quotas to the Dominican Republic and Argentina.

Later in the week the House plans to debate the money bill for the State, Commerce and Justice departments, a farm bill extending present wheat and feed grains programs and the Atomic Energy Commission authorization bill.

Veteran Senate-House Appropriations Committee members make another try today to break a deadlock, now in its fourth month, over protocol that has blocked action on all money bills this year.

The Senate Finance Committee meets for its fourth voting session today on Kennedy's tax revision bill.

If the group cannot complete action on it Tuesday it is scheduled to put the measure aside to begin public hearings Wednesday on the House-passed trade expansion measure.

you. In other words, treat you as an adult, not a child. But don't forget that this independence entails responsibility. Fly your own flag! If you want a car, earn the money to buy a second-hand one and rebuild it yourself. If you want pocket money, work for it. In doing so you will develop latent character.

Der Helen: In a recent column you mentioned a "How to Do It" leaflet which contained several formulas for making perfume. I am a Brownie Scout leader and wonder if these formulas would be simple enough for girls of nine and ten to follow. The books on the subject in our local library are much too technical for them. —Mrs. T.

Dear Mrs. T.: Yes, the formulas given in the "Perfume Making as a Hobby" leaflet are simple enough for your Brownies to understand, provided you go over the directions with them a couple of times before making the actual perfume. It is important that they understand, rather than parrot, the formulas. The doing will give them a practical lesson in arithmetic.

Dear Helen: My parents make life miserable for my fiancé. They refuse to let him stay at the house when he drives over weekends, don't ask him in for meals and now say we can only see one another Sunday afternoons.

We have been engaged more than a year; in fact, were supposed to be married last year but, as usual, my father changed his mind at the eleventh hour and insisted that we wait another 12 months. Meanwhile we moved a distance away from our home town which means my fiancé has to drive practically all night to spend one day a week with me.

It's all been more than we can take so wonder if it wouldn't be simpler to elope and have done very threat you pose indicates an adolescence they have unconsciously encouraged. Take the initiative. Tell them their problem, namely to make a man of yourself, is yours to. Ask them to explain the why and wherefore before laying down the law to

President Goes to Sea for Weekend

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy returns to Washington today after his second Cape Cod summer weekend of rest and relaxation on the sparkling blue waters of Nantucket Sound.

The President has no public appointments for his first day back from the weekend, but he is expected to get a first-hand report from his press secretary, Pierre Salinger, due in from Brazil.

A scheduled presidential visit to Brazil was put off last week because of the political situation there. The announcement of the delay came as Salinger was in Brazil.

The President varied his weekend program of boating, swimming and water sports in the vicinity of the summer White with this constant heckling and policing. Please advise us. —Desperate

Dear Desperate: Obviously your parents do not approve of your fiancé. Ask them why they treat him like a stepchild. They may have good reason. Not knowing your age; whether or not you have finished school or if your fiancé can support you, I could not, in all conscience, advise you to elope.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Hasty marriage."

How much does it cost to get rid of this?

686,000 BTUs OF HEAT

plus thousands of cubic feet of hot air and water vapor per month!

with a Flameless Range,

the difference in air conditioning cost would be enough to pay for electric cooking for 4 months out of the year!

If you're cooking by any other method than Flameless Electricity, you're simply adding to the tremendous load of normal summertime heat in your kitchen! Here's why: when a flame burns, the great amount of air needed to aid combustion has to go somewhere, and it does: up and around the utensil and into the kitchen, carrying the heat with it. Flame-type ranges use TWICE as much heat to perform the same cooking job as an Electric Range. Therefore, 50% of the heat is not only wasted but, compared with Flameless Cooking, it simply heats the kitchen unnecessarily and adds plenty to your cost of maintaining a cool home.

For once the heat is IN your home, your air conditioner has to haul it out. To do this calls for harder work and greater use of air conditioning equipment — at a cost equal to the cost of using a Flameless Range four months out of the year!

So why not save that cost with a Flameless All Electric Kitchen? Why not add to the benefits of comfort the countless other benefits of modern Electric cooking — the automatic features, the precise, pinpoint heat needed, the unbelievable cleanliness! They're yours the day you THINK FLAMELESS... and choose your new Range at your electric appliance store.

New Cabinet Nominee Is Sure Shot

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON, (AP) - President Kennedy's nomination of Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze of Cleveland to be the next secretary of welfare appears headed for speedy Senate confirmation. Senate Republican leaders said they doubted there would be any opposition and Democrats were high in their praise of Celebrezze, 51, named Saturday to succeed Abraham A. Ribicoff. The White House said the nomination probably would be sent to the Senate today. There it will be turned over to the Finance Committee. Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., said no hearings are planned but, as is customary, Celebrezze will be required to make an appearance before the group. "So far as I know there is no objection to him," said Byrd at his home in Berryville, Va. Celebrezze, now serving an unprecedented fifth term as Cleveland's mayor, is due in Washington Tuesday for a conference with Kennedy. Byrd said the nomination will be worked in "as soon as we can

Widow of Secy. Talbot Is Suicide

NEW YORK (AP) - Margaret Talbot, socialite widow of Harold E. Talbot, secretary of the Air Force in the Eisenhower administration, plunged 12 stories to her death Sunday from a bedroom window of her Manhattan apartment.

Mrs. Talbot, 62, left five notes, police said. Four were addressed to servants. The fifth, apparently to her family, told of her continuing depression over the death of her husband five years ago.

Talbot, 68, died March 2, 1957, in Palm Beach, Fla., of a cerebral hemorrhage. He served as Air Force secretary under President Dwight D. Eisenhower from 1953 to 1955, when he resigned following a Senate probe into his private business affairs.

Mrs. Talbot's body, clad in negligee and a house coat, was found in a rear courtyard shortly after dawn. A maid in an adjoining room said she saw her.

"There won't be any delay," On the Republican side, Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said, "I assume the record will disclose nothing that will prevent his confirmation."

Noting Celebrezze's popularity with Cleveland voters, Dirksen remarked: "Evidently he's done a very able job."

Celebrezze was elected to the Ohio Senate in 1950 and re-elected in 1952. He won his first race for mayor of Cleveland in 1953 and returned to office in 1955, 1957, 1959 and 1961. In winning a fifth term, Celebrezze got a 73.8 percent plurality and carried every ward in the city.

He was born in Anzi, Italy, of naturalized U.S. citizens and is believed to be the first Italian-American chosen for the Cabinet. If he is approved by the Senate he will become the second Roman Catholic in Kennedy's Cabinet. The other is the President's brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. Ribicoff, former governor of Connecticut, quit the health, education and welfare post Thursday to campaign for the Democratic Senate nomination in his state.

To Inflate Big Balloon From Rocket

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) - The eastern United States may receive a brilliant predawn show Wednesday when the space agency attempts to inflate a giant space sphere nearly 1,000 miles above the Atlantic Ocean.

Officials hope those up early enough to witness the inflation will have better viewing than on a similar launching last Jan. 15, when one of the big spheres ripped to shreds two seconds after it expanded to its full 135-foot diameter.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that Wednesday is the earliest possible launch date. The attempt will be made between 4 and 6 a.m. (EST). The rays of the rising sun will reflect off the aluminum-coated ball and it should appear as a bright star moving across the southern sky.

Purpose of the experiment is to test techniques for launching an advanced Echo communications satellite later this year.

The Thor booster is to free the balloon-dubbed Big Shot-at an altitude of 230 miles. The ball, folded neatly in a canister on launching, is to inflate and drift to an altitude of 950 miles before plummeting back to burn up in the earth's atmosphere some 600 miles down range and 20 minutes after launching.

Brother and Sister Held for Robbery

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) - The three-day mystery of the Bank of Atkins holdup apparently has been solved in part with the weekend arrest of a North Little Rock brother and sister.

State Trooper O. E. Bowden and Pope County Deputy Gene Rankin arrested Mrs. Louise Mallet Loyd, 29, and her brother, Carroll D. Mallet, 24, late Saturday night in the Levy section of North Little Rock. They were charged with robbery Sunday and held in the city jail here in lieu of $20,000 bond each.

Officers said a third person, an unidentified man, still is being sought along with the $1,879 taken in the daring nighttime robbery Thursday.

During the holdup, three bank employees were locked in a vault, but escaped when the door jammed. No customers were in the bank at the time.

The FBI, joined by state police and local law enforcement officers, set up roadblocks in the Atkins area and conducted an intensive, but fruitless search, for several days.

It was not revealed what circumstances led to the arrest of Mrs. Loyd and her brother, nor was their any clue to the identity of the man.

The pair was taken to Atkins Sunday where they were viewed by some 20 persons who told officers they had viewed the holdup. No one was able to make a positive identification.

Mrs. Loyd and her brother were questioned later in the day by FBI agents.

They made no statement, officers said.

A search continues for clues to the Friday night burglary of the Leslie State Bank in which thieves took $5,587 in coins.

ing building had heard the impact and called police.

Mrs. Talbot, a member of one of Philadelphia's oldest families, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Thayer. Her father, an economist, had been vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

GO BACK WHERE YOU CAME FROM?
By RUSSELL KAZMAREK

The bus was approaching the county line—the last stop on its route. Most of the passengers had already disembarked, leaving just one man on the bus, Waldo Elderson, who sat in the seat behind the driver.

Leaning forward, Waldo looked around the black shade that separated him from the driver. Shadows made the man look grotesque. His shoulders slumped forward, his neck was thick and wrinkled. He wore a battered hat the brim of which flopped down almost to cover his ears. But Waldo wanted to talk. He felt the need of company. "Dark tonight. Few stars," he said.

"Not too many," said the driver, with a slight accent. "You're new on this route, aren't you?" Waldo asked. The driver nodded. "You've got an accent," Waldo said.

"I'm nod from this country," the driver admitted. "A foreigner, huh?" Waldo's disdain showed in his voice. He couldn't stand foreigners.

The driver paid no attention but kept watching the road. Finally he pulled to one side of the road to a stop. "Here we are," he said. "County line!"

Waldo seemed in no hurry to leave. Instead of getting out of the bus, he moved to the seat cross the aisle, to get a better view of the thick-necked driver. "How long do you lay over here?" he asked. "I've got time to talk."

"Got to leave in ten minutes," said the driver.

Waldo took off his glasses and polished them with his handkerchief. He wanted to get a better look at this fellow. "World situation's pretty fouled up, ain't it?" he said. "Berlin, Russia, Asia everything. One of these days somebody'll blow the whole earth up—just because nobody can get smart."

"What can we do about it?" the driver asked in his accented voice. "Well, we can agree among ourselves in this country," said Waldo. "Foreigners are fouling everything up. Get 'em out of the country."

The driver leveled his eyes at Waldo. They looked pinkish and Waldo quickly put on his glasses. Through Waldo's glasses the driver still looked strange. Perhaps, Waldo thought, he should have another eye examination. The glasses didn't seem to fit the way they should. But nevertheless the driver did look foreign. Undoubtedly he hadn't been born in this country.

"You're a foreigner," said the driver. "The Indians were here first."

This didn't please Waldo. "You're just trying to confuse me," he said.

"I'm just stating a fact," said the driver. He looked out of the window. No cars on the road, nothing but stars to look at. "You guys come here and take our jobs," said Waldo. "Then you go back to where you came from and live on social security from America."

The driver looked at the watch hanging near the farebox. "About time to leave," he said. "You got time to listen," Waldo said. "I want to tell you what I think about D. P.'s. They're free loaders!"

The driver stared at him. "You got to get off the bus, Mister."

"I'll get off when I get good and ready," Waldo was belligerent. "Just where did you come from?"

The driver didn't answer. "Afraid to say, huh?" Waldo had a triumphant gleam in his eyes.

The driver gazed out of the window, ignoring Waldo. "What are you looking at?" Waldo demanded. "Listen to me—"

"I'm watching the planets," said the driver.

"You're not listening. What have planets got to do with us?" "Not much, maybe," said the driver. "But the way you talk makes me homesick."

"Good," said Waldo. "Why don't you go back where you came from?"

The driver sighed, took off his hat and turned on the light over his seat.

Waldo's face twisted in horror. The driver's ears, covered by his hat, stood up like a rabbit's. And he had big front teeth—rabbit teeth, to. But he wasn't a rabbit.

"I will someday," he said, "but it's such a long way back to Mars and I wouldn't get my social security check there."

Waldo fled screaming from the bus.

Body Found in River at Fort Smith

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Searchers recovered the body of Raymond Ethridge, a 19-year-old Charleston construction worker, Sunday from the Arkansas River below Fort Smith.

Ethridge drowned Saturday night when a boat in which he and four other construction workers capsized. The others scrambled aboard a nearby barge.

Ethridge's death brought to 24 the number of persons dying violently in the state during the week ended last midnight.

Robbie Lee Collins, 37, a Warren Negro, was fatally wounded Sunday by a blast from a sawed-off shotgun. Officers held Fay Lee McCoy, 32, on an open charge. Patrolman Wilson Huit said Collins was shot during an argument with the other Negro.

Two Dalton men were killed Sunday when their car went out of control and struck a bridge abutment on state Highway 115 near Pochontas.

The victims were Garland Lee, 28, and William Archer, 27.

During the week, 14 persons died in traffic accidents, two in plane crashes, two by fire and two by drowning and one each by lightning, a fall, shooting and one was struck by a falling tree.

Marijuana Is Found in Auto

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) - Mechanics at Monticello, reconditioning a car obtained from a New Orleans credit firm, found one window wouldn't work. So they tore it apart and found that a small plastic bag filled with white powder was jamming the mechanism. Puzzled about identity of the substance, they called police. It was quickly identified as marijuana. The car had belonged to a man arrested for transporting the dope between New Orleans and Mexico.

Twin Bills in National Are Divided

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National League set a new high for lullaby Sunday. After 10 games, stretching over 7 hours and 45 minutes, all 10 clubs were right back where they started.

The five split doubleheaders left Los Angeles 2½ games in front of San Francisco and 4½ in front of Pittsburgh. St. Louis still trailed by 10 and Cincinnati by 10½.

And the Mets' still 3½ games out and 29 games below .500. You can't say the Mets didn't try.

After beating the Giants in the opener 5-3, the Mets staged a six-run uprising in the eighth inning of the second game before finally succumbing 9-6.

The Dodgers also ran into trouble with the Yanks. After breezing past the Phillies in the opener 9-1 on a six-hitter by Johnny Podres, they lost 2-1 to Art Mahaffey, who never had beaten them previously.

St. Louis and Pittsburgh clawed away at one another all day and got nothing more than a standoff. Fred Whitfield's pinch homer in the 10th gave the Cards the opener 3-2 but the Pirates grabbed the second 8-7 on Roberto Clemente's single after the Cards tied the score in the top of the ninth.

Milwaukee got five-hit shutout pitching by Lew Burdette for a 5-0 victory over Cincinnati in the first game and appeared on the way to two before the Reds beat rookie Donny Lemaster 3-2 with two in the ninth on Vada Pinson's 10th homer and an unearned run after Lee Maye dropped Wally Post's fly.

Houston was guilty of nine errors, five in the first game which they won from Chicago 5-4 on Al Spangler's two-run homer in the seventh. The Cubs took the second 4-1 with 10 hits, four Houston errors and a tidy five-hit pitching job by Dick Ellsworth.

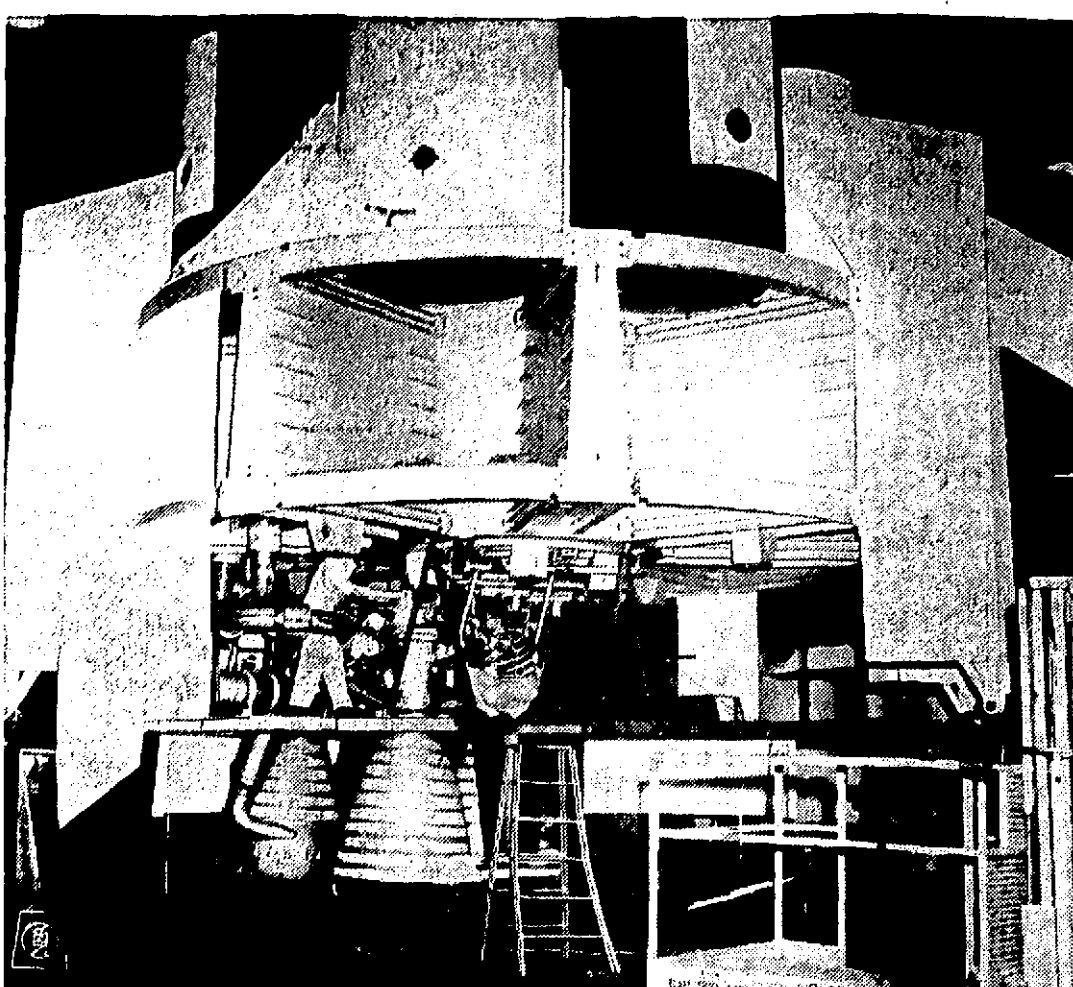

In the American League, the New York Yankees moved 2½ games in front of Los Angeles by taking two from Kansas City, 8-6 in 10 innings and 11-3, Baltimore, knocked off Cleveland in both ends 6-4 and 6-5. Minnesota topped Boston 5-3 and their second game was rained out. Chicago won a struggle from Detroit 5-3. Los Angeles beat Washington 5-1 in the opener but the Senators came back to take the second 10-4.

The Giants' hopes of rolling up football scores against the Mets, as the Dodgers did Saturday, were foiled by Jay Hook's nine-hit pitching and Frank Thomas' hitting in the opener. Thomas had two doubles and a single and drove in two runs. Tom Haller of the Giants hit the only homer after the Mets had a five-run fourth.

With a 9-2 lead going to the last of the eighth, the Giants appeared to be in a comfortable position in the second game. However, the Mets sent 11 men to the plate in the eighth and scored six runs before Juan Marichal finally cooled them off. Orlando Cepeda and Harvey Kuenn each hit two-run homers for the Giants in that game.

Podres' complete game against the Phils was his first since May 9. He had failed to finish 13 straight times.

Mahaffey had lost seven straight in the Dodgers in his big league career before he finally jias. Carl Warwick and Spangler scored in the second game. Phil in the opener, won by Hal Woodie-Ortega, a surprise starter, simply slack. They couldn't cope with couldn't handle Roy Sievers who hit his 12th homer in the second and helped the Cubs with four and scored the winning run on errors.

SHAPING THE SATURN—Almost lost in the plumbing, two technicians work in the engine area of a mock-up Saturn rocket at the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala. The SA-5 (fifth version of the Saturn) will sport several design changes, including larger tanks to carry an additional 100,000 pounds of fuel. Most apparent are the huge fins which have been added to give greater stability and control. The Saturn, world's largest known rocket, has already been successfully tested in an earlier version. The full-scale model aids engineers in the transition from blueprints to actual rocket.

Bobby Wine's single in the fourth after he was hit by a pitch.

Whitfield's homer at Pittsburgh won the game for Ray Washburn, the man for whom he batted. Roy Face was the loser. Face won the second game when Bill Virdon, Dick Groat and Clemente singled in the last of the ninth. Trailing 7-2, the Cards fought back to tie on Ken Boyer's two-run homer in the top of the ninth. Don Ferrarese was the loser.

Eddie Mathews took over eighth place on the all-time list of home run hitters with his 388th in the first game. Loser Jim Maloney was the victim. With the Braves leading 2-1 and Lemaster doing a fine job in his first start since he was called up from Louisville three days ago, Pinson hit his 16th homer in the ninth, tying the second game. After Maye's error on Post's fly, a wild pitch and Hank Foiles' single ended it.

The Colts overcame five errors straight in the Dodgers in his big league career before he finally jias. Carl Warwick and Spangler scored in the second game. Phil in the opener, won by Hal Woodie-Ortega, a surprise starter, simply slack. Maybe This Time Yanks Will Go, Go

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maybe—just maybe, mind you—this time it's for real.

The New York Yankees, who were supposed to run away and hide from the rest of the American League, have been in and out of first place on 10 separate occasions this season.

About half the times they were in, the perennial champions made mildly threatening gestures, and the experts proclaimed "This is it. Just like we said. Now they'll move."

Each time, however, it proved to be a false start. The league rallied, or injury struck, or the Yankees suddenly started acting like any other ball club. The result has been one of the closest American League races in history.

Well, they're in again and making those threatening gestures—only this time they may not be such mild motions. Maybe, just maybe, this time it's for real.

The Yanks pounced on Kansas City's thin pitching for 2 hits, including 10 home runs, Sunday in sweeping a doubleheader from the A's 8-6 in 10 innings and 11-3. The double victory gave them a lead of 2½ games—hardly commanding but the largest enjoyed by any AL leader this season.

The Los Angeles Angels regained second place when they engineered a doubleheader split, while Cleveland slipped back to third by losing a pair. The Angels beat Washington 5-1 in their first game, but lost 10-4 in the second. The Cleveland went three games off the pace when it lost its third and fourth straight 6-4 and 5-4 to Baltimore. Chicago beat Detroit 5-3 in a single game and Minnesota look Boston 5-3 in the first of a doubleheader. The second game was rained out.

In the National League, all 10 teams split doubleheaders. Leading Los Angeles bombed Philadelphia 9-1 in the first, but lost the second 2-1. San Francisco remained 2½ games back by fighting off New York 9-8 in the nightcap after the Mets had won the opener 5-3. Pittsburgh lost to St. Louis 3-2 in 10 innings in the first, but won the second 8-7. Milwaukee blanked Cincinnati 5-0 in the opener, but the Reds took the second 3-2. Houston edged Chicago 5-4 in the first, the Cubs winning the second 4-1.

Batting — Jim Gentile of the Orioles put Baltimore ahead to stay with his 23rd home run in sixth inning of 6-4 opener and won the 6-5 second game with his 24th in the ninth.

Pitching—Art Mahaffey of the Phillies turned back league-leading Dodgers with five hits, 2-1, beating them for the first time in his career with his sixth straight complete game.

Eli Garba who has a 6-0 career record against Washington, went the distance for the first time in 17 starts in pitching the Angels to their first game victory. Roo Koppe drove in three Los Angeles runs on a homer and a single.

The Senators, however, punished six Angels pitchers with a 17-hit attack in the nightcap rout. Bob Schmidt drove in three runs and Ken Hamlin two. Hamlin also stole three bases.

Luis Aparicio's double keyed a two-run White Sox rally in the eighth against Detroit. His sharp hit that caromed off third baseman Steve Boros drove in the run that broke a 3-3 tie and pushed the White Sox winning string to six. Rocky Colavito's 21st home run had tied it in the Tiger half of the inning.

Harmon Killebrew drove in four runs with a pair of doubles in Minnesota's victory over Boston. Frank Sullivan retired nine men in order in a three-inning relief appearance to save it.

Walnut Ridge, Jonesboro Win

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP)—The team of Jamie Dowell of Walnut Ridge and George Puryear of Jonesboro combined for a five-under par 36-hole total of 131 to win the Forrest City 4-ball tournament Sunday.

The pair carded a three-under par 65 Saturday and returned for a 66 and the championship Sunday.

Tied for second were Ted Darrough of Little Rock and Tom Stovall of Morrilton; and Pete Southern and Wallace Eldridge of Wynne.

Desist Order Is Given Paint Co.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Mary Carter Paint Co. of Tampa, Fla. has been ordered to discontinue its advertising claims of "buy one and get one free." The Federal Trade Commission held that the advertisements were deceptive, saying the advertised price of $6.98 a gallon is the customary price for two gallons, so that the second "free" gallon is not free at all. The firm maintained its offer was bona fide because it refused to sell single gallons of paint. It operates in Arkansas.

New "TELSTAR" relays phone calls and TV pictures for first time!

Bell System microwave-in-sky satellite is latest communications triumph for America arising from telephone research

The world's first private enterprise communications satellite is now being used for dramatic experiments in relaying telephone calls and television internationally.

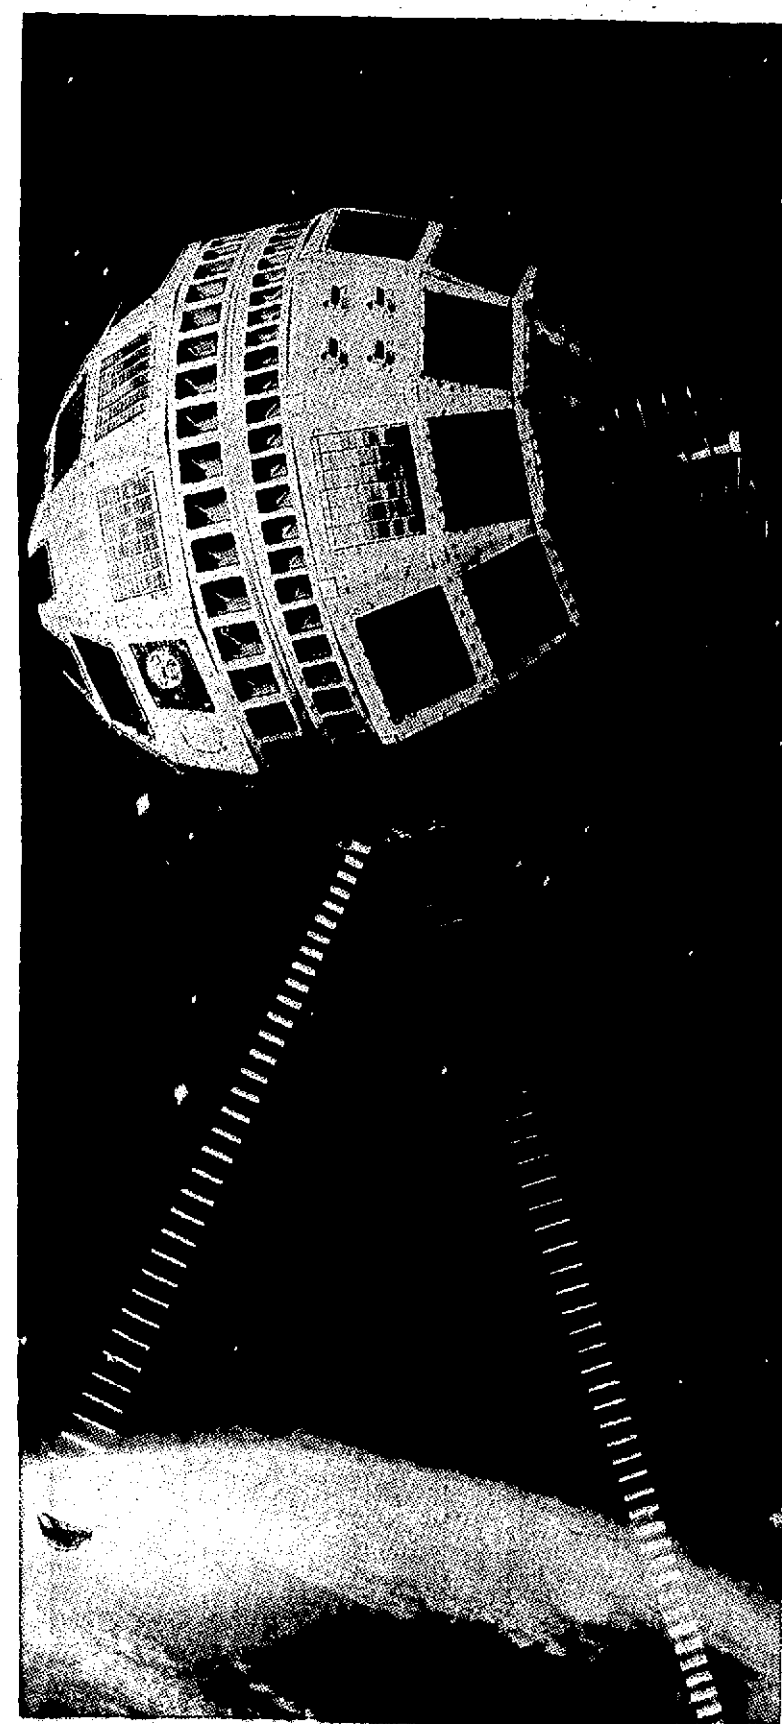

Its name: Telstar. It was launched from Cape Canaveral at Bell System expense by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Telstar receives signals beamed to it from a ground station, amplifies them and transmits them to another station on the ground below—perhaps an ocean away from the first one. The new satellite thus acts as a microwave relay station in the sky, enabling voices, TV pictures and data messages to leap thousands of miles in a new and exciting way.

The ground stations in the U.S. now being used for Telstar were built by the Bell System at Andover, Maine, and Holmdel, New Jersey.

Telstar is a first major experimental step toward a worldwide satellite communications system that was first proposed as a practical venture at Bell Telephone Laboratories. Progress toward such a system would not have reached its present state without continuing research and development by the private communications industry.

Above all else, Telstar is the latest achievement in an unending Bell System quest—the search for ways to make your telephone service still better, more economical, and more useful.
